

COME AND SING
MESSIAH
WITH FIONA EVANS

SATURDAY 16 JULY 2016
St Mary's Church Petworth GU28 0AD

Doors open at 10.15am
The workshop begins at 10.30am and ends at 4pm

The workshop will culminate in a mini-concert at 3.15pm-3.45pm. Friends and family are welcome to come to St Mary's at 3pm. Tickets are £3 on the door – seating is unreserved and limited, where there is space!

Over the course of the day, Fiona will take participants through their paces in her newly produced version of Handel's Messiah.

There will be a one-hour lunch break during the workshop: please bring a packed lunch, or why not use the time to explore Petworth?

If you wish to have a little extra practice prior to the day you are very welcome to attend the following sessions run by St Mary's Choir Master, Matthew Cooke. Both are in St Mary's at 7.30pm so just come along:

Thursday 16 June and Thursday 23 June

The scores are included in the ticket price and are yours to take home.

You are also very welcome to sing in the choir at the Festival Service on Thursday 14 July at 6pm in St Mary's. Matthew will be holding rehearsals to include practice on the Anthem, 'The heavens are telling' from Haydn's 'Creation'. These are on Thursday 9 June, Thursday 30 June, and Friday 8 July - all 7.30pm at St Mary's. No need to phone - just turn up.
